

KHRC Employment Law Seminar

Never has the spotlight been so intense on the workplace and how employers address workplace situations. #MeToo has increased the public's and employee's awareness of harassment, particularly sexual harassment, and expectation that employers will promptly and correctly address harassment allegations. Violence in the workplace is more than a passing concern for many. The workplace is everchanging with new legal interpretations and administrative requirements. Plus, there are the ever-present concerns about correctly addressing difficult employee situations.

Let us equip you to solve today's ever changing human resource/employment law puzzle with this comprehensive seminar! Expert speakers address the hottest, most relevant topics. Learn how to prevent and address sexual harassment in the #MeToo era. Receive the latest developments from the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. Hear about leave and return to work, the Fair Labor Standards Act, and addressing workplace violence. Equip yourself with human resource practices and policies for today, and how to manage conflict and confrontation. Receive an overview of the latest developments in employment law or participate in an attorney ethics credit. This affordable seminar is perfect for solving the HR/employment law puzzle.

Approval for 6.00 hours of CLE credit, including 1.50 hours of ethics/professionalism credit, through the Kansas Continuing Legal Education Commission and the Missouri Bar are pending. This program has been submitted to the HR Certification Institute for review.
